2011 Louisville Memorial Day Vigil.

YOUR CHANCE TO HONOR OUR VETERANS!

Adult and Kid Volunteers needed to place
25,000 Veterans' Grave Flags on the Great Lawn at Waterfront Park, starting at 10 AM on Saturday, May 28.

Want to teach your kids that Memorial Day isn't really about the family BBQ?

Bring your friends and family to help build this Flag-Field to honor America's Heroes.

Flag Placers needed to place flags in Flag Field and maintain the flags in place.

On-Site Staff to help coordinate Volunteers and to help staff the Admin & Info Tent.

Staff the tent where kids make greeting cards for troops deployed in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Two steel beams from 9/11 Ground Zero of The World Trade Center will be present at the Louisville Memorial Day Ceremony, at NOON on Saturday, May 28.

DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS
NATIONAL CEMETERY ADMINISTRATION
WASHINGTON DC 20420

August 2, 2007

Dear Adoptaflag.org:

I want to thank Adoptaflag.org for its dedication to providing U.S. grave decorating flags for every grave of every U.S. veteran buried in any national or military cemetery in the continental United States and those located in 11 foreign countries.

Mr. Fred Moore, the director of Adoptaflag.org, a non-profit organization, and members of the Adoptaflag.org staff are undertaking myriad initiatives to obtain support for this enormous endeavor dubbed "Flags For Vets."

The National Cemetery Administration salutes Adoptaflag.org in its efforts to launch "Flags For Vets" and greatly appreciates its support of and interest in our Nation's veterans.

We know of no other group that has ever been recognized by the National Cemetery Administration in this way.

Sincerely,

Steve L. Muro
Director
Office of Field Programs

WE JUST FOUND OUT THAT SOMETHING BIG
IS COMING TO LOUISVILLE'S
WATERFRONT PARK AT NOON
ON SATURDAY, MAY 28.
YOUR FAMILY IS INVITED TO ATTEND!

It is coming to Louisville from New York, past hundreds of towns and cities, it has been honored by Mayors, Governors, and thousands of Citizens in hundreds of communities as it passed by on the highway. But here, in Louisville, this revered treasure will stop at Waterfront Park to be a part of the Flags4Vets National Memorial Day Vigil at Noon on Saturday, May 28.

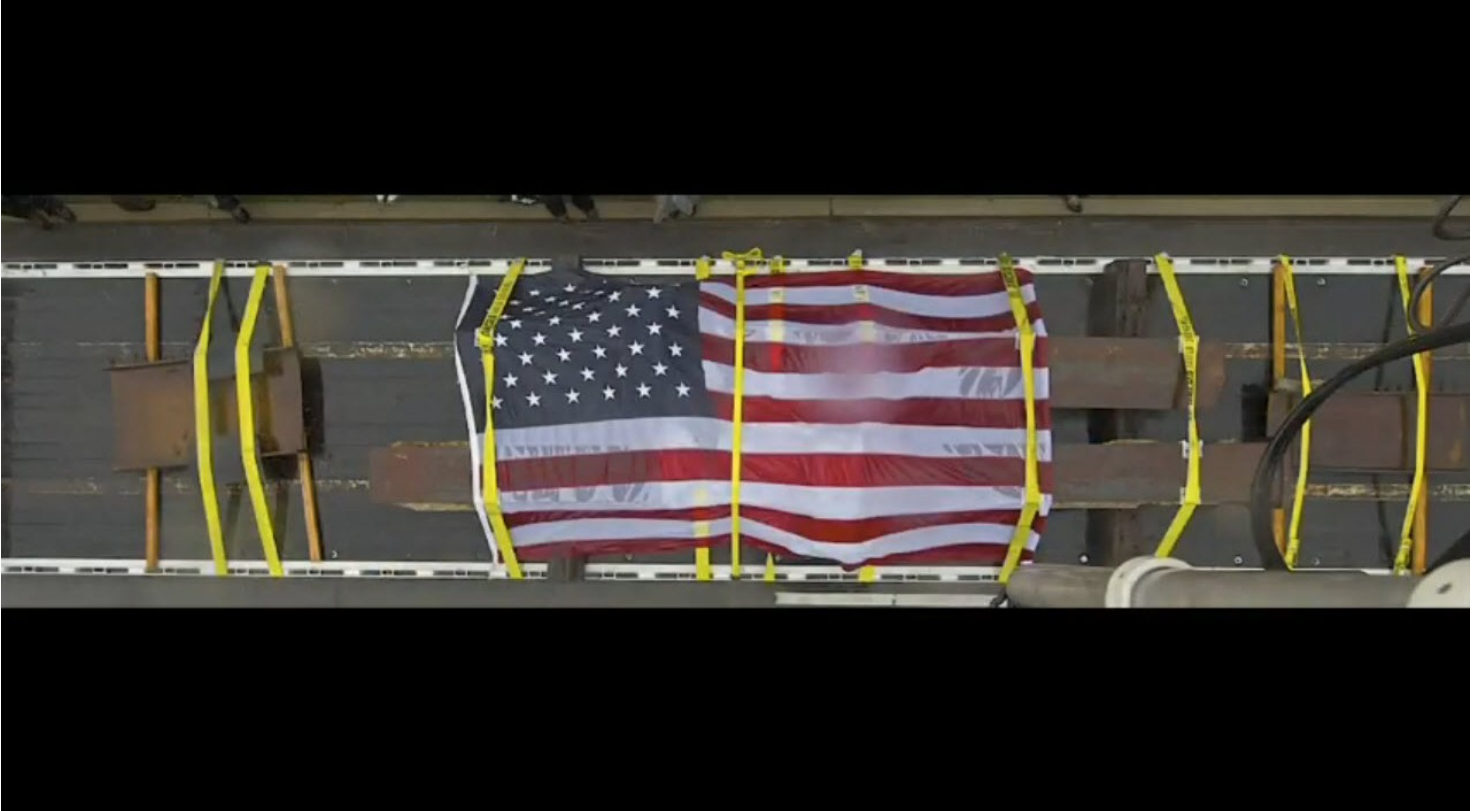

What could be so important?

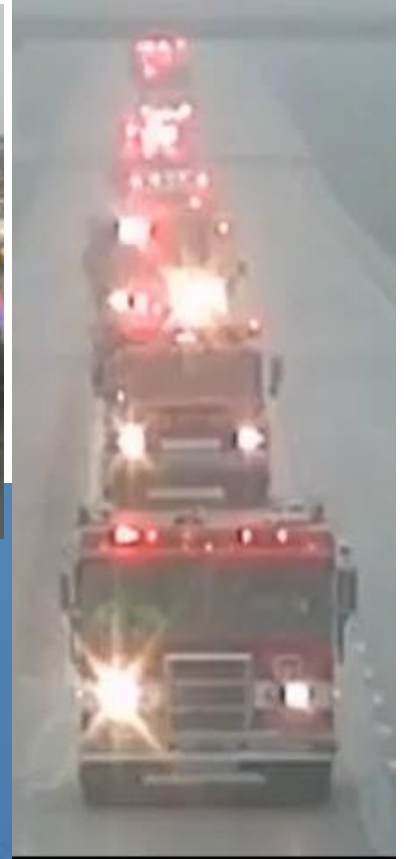

Two steel beams from the World Trade Center, after their stop in Louisville, are heading to Indianapolis to become a permanent memorial to Honor the 9/11 Innocents.

How will Louisville Honor this Treasure?

Please pass this info to everyone on your email list, and bring your friends and family to Waterfront Park at Noon on Saturday, May 28, 2011.
